

Linda Crook

May 18, 2012

Stafford - Linda E. Crook, 62, of Stafford, passed away suddenly, Friday, (May 18, 2012) at her home.

Miss Crook was born June 5, 1949 in Batavia, a daughter of the late Robert and Helen (Conk) Crook.

Linda was a member of the Stafford Historical Society, and worked in the front office for the Batavia Muckdogs for many years. She also volunteered her time to numerous organizations over the years.

She is survived by her brother, Stephen (Regina) Crook of Middleburg; nephews, Charles M. of Buffalo, and Stephen R. Crook of Ithaca; a niece, Alyssa M. Geddes of Albany. Several aunts, uncles, and cousins also survive.

At Linda's request, there will be no visitation and services will be held at the convenience of the family.

“ TO MY MOST DEAR & WONDERFUL FRIEND ~ LINDA ~ ~ It is not often in life that one meets someone whose encouragement & words of affirmation & shared love of music & wonderful personality comes along . . . Such was my dear, dear friend ~ LINDA CROOK ~ Her influence & love of music graced my life ~ & ~ her words of encouragement @ my singing were so profound & uplifting that I wrote them on 3x5 cards years ago & have kept them on my Music Room desk for many years. I just heard of her passing this very hour & my tears & sorrow for losing such a wonderful friend continue to fall & be felt. I am grieved that I was not able to attend her funeral services. I loved her for her love of life & amazing caring. I shall look forward to greeting her in song in Heaven ~ Dear Heavenly Father ~ JESUS ~ hold her close & please let her know how greatly she influenced my life. In Thy Most Precious & Holy Name ~the Name of Jesus~ AMEN ~ I CORINTHIANS 13 ~ Sorrowfully, Marcia Skinner
