“ To all of Eleanor's family: I have many memories of your mother, including seeing her walking to and from 400 Towers to church at St. Joe's, no matter what the weather! Sometimes she would accept a ride, but mostly she and her friend Pauline would walk. She came to an exercise class at St. Mary's with her sister Christine. All of us marveled at what she could do (and I think she was already 90!) Many times she could outshine all of us much younger than she was. Eleanor always had an interest in and a zest for life which undoubtedly kept her going for her 96 years. Our sympathy to all of her family. We know she will be missed. Lorraine & Dan Rybak
