

Velma Jessop

February 28, 2013

Brockport - Velma C. Jessop, 98, of Brockport, a school teacher at Eden Central School in Eden, NY for 25 years prior to her retirement, died Thursday, February 28, 2013 at Lakeside Memorial Hospital, in Brockport.

Mrs. Jessop was born April 1, 1914 in Racquette River, NY, a daughter of the late Charles and Mildred (Taylor) Chase.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Bergen for over 25 years, member of the Bergen Triangle Club and Bergen Historical Society. She was a graduate of the Buffalo State Teacher's College and volunteered for many years at the Bergen Public Library.

Her husband, John A. Jessop, died March 23, 1989.

Survivors include her son, John (Jan) Jessop of Rushford, 4 grandsons, Timothy (Cindy) Jessop and Todd (Lori) Jessop, both of Churchville, Sean (Shannon) Jessop of Brockport and Scott (Rebecca) Jessop of Fayette; 9 great-grandchildren, a niece, Sandra Paradis of Florida and a nephew, David Paradis of Albany.

She was the mother of the late Clark Jessop and sister of a late brother and 3 late sisters.

Friends may attend services at 2 p.m. Sunday, March 10, 2013 at First Presbyterian Church of Bergen, 38 S. Lake St., Bergen. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to a charity of the donor's choice. Arrangements were completed by H.E. Turner & Co, Funeral Home of Bergen.

Tribute Wall

“ b

The family of Velma Jessop uploaded a photo

Wednesday, July 8, 2015

---

July 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ I will always remember Aunt Velma making bread. When my parents and I would come to visit, we had her bread or her toast with every meal. We would take 2-3-4 loaves back home with us so we could enjoy her toast for weeks after our visit. After I married, my wife, Beth came to enjoy Aunt Velma's bread and when we visited her in that grand ole house on Long Avenue, Aunt Velma sent bread home with us too. God give you rest Aunt Velma. You missed your sisters so much and now you are sitting at the Lord's table in heaven with them (and I imagine making bread too). We loved you so very, very much. Dave and Beth xoxoxox

---

David and Beth Paradis (nephew and wife) - March 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ I will always remember Aunt Velma making bread. When my parents and I would come to visit, we had her bread or her toast with every meal. We would take 2-3-4 loaves back home with us so we could enjoy her toast for weeks after our visit. After I married, my wife, Beth came to enjoy Aunt Velma's bread and when we visited her in that grand ole house on Long Avenue, Aunt Velma sent bread home with us too. God give you rest Aunt Velma. You missed your sisters so much and now you are sitting at the Lord's table in heaven with them (and I imagine making bread too). We loved you so very, very much. Dave and Beth xoxoxox

---

David and Beth Paradis (nephew and wife) - March 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM

David and Beth Paradis (nephew and wife) posted a condolence

Sunday, March 3, 2013

I will always remember Aunt Velma making bread. When my parents and I would come to visit, we had her bread or her toast with every meal. We would take 2-3-4 loaves back home with us so we could enjoy her toast for weeks after our visit. After I married, my wife, Beth came to enjoy Aunt Velma's bread and when we visited her in that grand ole house on Long Avenue, Aunt Velma sent bread home with us too. God give you rest Aunt Velma. You missed your sisters so much and now you are sitting at the Lord's table in heaven with them (and I imagine making bread too). We loved you so very, very much. Dave and Beth xoxoxox

---

David and Beth Paradis (nephew and wife) - March 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM